Invitation

As a valued organization interested in the care of patients with amyloidosis, you are invited to come and join the Australian Amyloidosis Network board members for a special free virtual zoom education meeting to celebrate National Amyloidosis Day and the launch of the AAN as a Company Limited by Guarantee.

The program will include information about the AAN and three talks by Australian medical specialists involved in the treatment of patients with amyloidosis.

The starting time for the meeting is scheduled for 11am, AEST. This means that if you are living in QLD, NSW, TAS, VIC or ACT, the meeting will start at 11am your time. If you live in SA you will join at 10:30am. If you live in WA you will join at 9am. If you live in the NT you will join at 10:30am.

Instructions for registration

- 1) Open the home/landing page of the AAN web site: aan.org.au
- 2) Scroll down on the right hand side to events and click on the event on May 7 entitled "Australian Amyloidosis Network-Virtual Meeting". This will take you to a page which contains information about the education day, the program and bios of the three speakers giving the afternoon talks.
- 3) At the bottom of the page you will see the word registration and a box for your registration details. These details are very simple but important to the AAN for building partnerships and membership into the future.
- 4) When you send this form in, you will receive an acknowledgement e-mail.
- 5) You will receive a link to join the virtual meeting on Monday May 2nd. Just click on this link on May 7th to enter the meeting.

Please note: If you do not wish to join in the whole meeting you can choose the sessions you want to watch. The approximate times for the afternoon talks are on the program.

The morning program will be made up of a number of short talks by AAN Board and committee members.

Depending on how many people register this Zoom meeting will may be too large for you all to be seen on the screen. So, it will be a meeting where you watch and listen without your microphone or video turned on.

Questions will be welcomed. They will be typed into a box which will be visible at the bottom of this screen on the day. The chairman will then ask them for you.

If you are having difficulty registering or have any other queries, please e-mail p.neely@bigpond.net.au
