

Bone Marrow Failure Syndromes Patient & Family Forum

Brought to you by
Maddie Riewoldt's Vision Centre of Research
Excellence in Bone Marrow Biology.

Listen to trusted experts, have your questions answered, hear about the latest developments from clinicians and scientists at the forefront of research.

Friday 28 August 2020, from 9am-12pm

Attend virtually via livestream login

OR in person (COVID-19 restrictions pending)
Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre,
7th Floor Lecture Theatre B,
305 Grattan Street, Melbourne

Register at mrv.org.au

Registration is FREE

The session will be hosted by Professor David Ritchie

Head Allogeneic Stem Cell Transplantation and Deputy Director Clinical Haematology Peter
MacCallum Cancer Centre and The Royal
Melbourne Hospital, Director of CRE in Bone
Marrow Biology, Maddie's Vision Board Member and Scientific Advisory Committee Chair

The topics and panel of speakers will include:

Presentation & Diagnosis

Dr Anthea Greenway (Paediatric Haematologist, The Royal Children's Hospital)

Genetic Testing in Bone Marrow Failure Syndromes

Dr Lucy Fox (Adult Haematologist, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre)

Genetic Counselling

Anna Jarmolowicz (Genetic Counsellor, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre)

Transplantation

Dr David Hughes (Paediatric Haematologist and Transplant Physician, The Royal Children's Hospital)

Nursing perspectives, clinical and telehealth

Mei Ling Yeh (Clinical Nurse Specialist, The Royal Children's Hospital and Maddie's Vision Telehealth Nurse)

Patient Perspective

Tommy Dassalo (comedian and bone marrow transplant survivor)
Jessica Lake (mother of patient)
Brenda Hinshelwood (mother of patients)

Future Directions, gene and cellular therapies

Associate Professor Andrew Deans, St Vincent's Institute of Medical Research

Clinical Trial Opportunities, Registry and Biobank

Dr Lucy Fox

Q&A Panel

Presenters plus Maddie's Vision CEO Nicky Long