

Registered Nurse Haematology and Bone Marrow Transplant position Royal Melbourne Hospital

Part Time/Full Time permanent hours available

The Royal Melbourne Hospital has a 32 bed ward dedicated to the care of patients undergoing treatment for Acute Leukaemia, Non-Malignant Haematology and Allogeneic Bone Marrow Transplants. We provide innovative, high quality care to patients throughout all aspects of their treatment journey utilising the expertise of all partners within the Victorian Comprehensive Cancer Centre.

The Ward.

In addition to a supernumerary NUM and large Clinical Nurse Education team Monday to Friday, ward nurses have great access to a range of supports including;

- Nurse patient ratios 1:3 daytime and 1:5 night time.
- Clinical Resource Nurse 0930 -1800 daily
- Health Assistant in Nursing model to support the Registered Nurses
- Haematology, Bone Marrow Transplant Clinical Nurse Consultants and Nurse Practitioners

About you.

- AHPRA registered
- Patient focused
- Commitment to delivering high standards of care
- Great communication skills (written and verbal)
- Enjoy working in a team environment

Professional Development opportunities.

- Graduate Certificate in Cancer Nursing (University of Melbourne).
- Registered Nurse Introduction to Specialty Education (RISE) program.
- Beyond the Basics (2 day course covering aspects of Haematology nursing).
- Bone Marrow Transplant study day.
- Preceptor in charge program (8-10 week program working alongside nurse in charge).
- Professional Development Associate Nurse Unit Manager role (rotation nurse in charge role).
- Additional ward based competencies; central venous access device (CVAD) management, blood management, cytotoxic administration and stem cell administration.

Benefits of working with the Royal Melbourne Hospital.

- Comprehensive Health & Wellbeing Programs including; On-site staff gym, Staff Medical Service, Employee Assistance Program, Peer Support Program
- Work alongside highly trained staff whilst providing compassionate and supportive care for all members of the community.
- Salary packaging options, onsite car parking, close to public transport

The RMH is proud to be a workplace that champions diversity, inclusion and equality for our staff and our community. Our goal is for our people to feel safe, included and supported so that they can be at their best every single day. We encourage talented people from all backgrounds, abilities and identities to apply to our vacancies, and will consider adjustments to support such applications.

Job application.

Please send through your CV and Cover letter to cameron.grant@mh.org.au for further information relating to the role please call Cameron Grant on (03) 93429200

Applications close 5pm Monday 25th April 2022

